

Technical Marketing Specialist

Division: MacDermid Electronics

Location: Waterbury, CT

- Qualifications:
- B.S. in science, preferably chemistry or chemical engineering or B.A. in communications, marketing, or journalism with strong experience in technical writing
 - Demonstrated proficiency in clear written communications
 - 3+ years experience in professional technical writing
 - Expertise in standard document, presentation, and spreadsheet software; website management experience preferred
 - Fluency in Mandarin a plus
 - Positive can-do attitude, self-motivated, enjoys the team working environment

- Responsibilities:
- Coordination of existing technical documentation into a easy-to-use library for internal employees and external customers
 - Creation of new technical documents and presentations as new products are introduced
 - Management of technical communications across web, network and geographic databases
 - Accurate translation of documents into Mandarin using available resources
 - Revision control of all marketing documents in our electronics division
 - Coordination of some industry tradeshow events

Apply Now: Send inquiries/resumes to:
MacDermid, Inc.
245 Freight Street
Waterbury, CT 06702
Human Resources

Or to:
careers@macdermid.com
Reference Cullen position